Unit title	Vocation	CAFOD	Judaism Beliefs.		Judaism Practices		GCSE technique
Aims	This is a unit which explores the various features of vocations and calling from God. The study should include opportunities for personal reflection and an element of discernment. They will explore some ideas previously explored, such as Sacraments and living a Christian life.	The second part of 'ministry' is how Christians respond to the poor and vulnerable in the world. The role of Catholic Social Teaching in the actions of the Church should be included to give a further insight into how belief influences actions.	The study of Judaism has been explored in the year 7 and 8 topics (Mass, Story of Salvation) and is given more time and depth in Year 9. This scheme gives a framework of key Jewish Beliefs	A significant amount of time is used to introduce and explore the techniques for the GCSE examination expectations.	Judaism Practices links the core beliefs to how it influences the way Jews live their life.	End of Year Exam: Judaism
