

Eloquent and Grateful

Read one of Phillipa Gregory historical novels.

Watch a film relevant to you're A level studies such as:

- Till (Civil Rights)
- Platoon (Cold War in Asia)

Attentive and Compassionate

Listen to a weekly History podcast such as 'The rest is History' or 'Witness History' on BBC Sounds.

Lead a historical debate at the School Debate Club.

Wise & Curious and Faith-filled & Prophetic

Research a recent Civil Rights issue and outline the history and legal debates such as:

- Roe V Wade (US)
- The fight for justice for the victims of Bloody Sunday (Northern Ireland)
- The record of human rights violations in the Islamic Republic of Iran.

Visit a local Tudor Manor House such as Packington Old Hall or Baddesley Clinton.

Key

Read

Student Led

Watch

Creative/Research

Listen

Visit