

Eloquent and Grateful

Read more about how plastic pollution is affecting our oceans. Blue Planet: The Story Continues: <https://canvas-story.bbcrewind.co.uk/blue-planet-two-six-months-on/>

Seven charts that explain the plastic pollution problem:
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/science-environment-42264788>

Watch the video to find out what kind of bag should you use when shopping? It might seem obvious that plastic is bad for the environment, and that a paper bag or a cotton tote would be the better option. But is that really true?
<https://ed.ted.com/lessons/which-bag-should-you-use-luka-seamus-wright-and-imogen-ellen-napper>

Attentive and Compassionate

Listen to the People Fixing the World podcast to find out....

How bubbles can reduce plastic pollution: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p0g262ty>
And
How plants can clear up oil spills: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p0dw6mln>

Select one of the following designers and find out about what they have designed and how they have influenced the world.

- Zaha Hadid
- Thomas Heatherwick
- Yinka Ilori
- Stella McCartney
- Jony Ive

Which of the designers do you prefer? Why?

Wise & Curious and Faith-filled & Prophetic

Research the work of I am Acrylic and design 5 new items that would be suitable to be sold
<https://iamacrylic.bigcartel.com/>
Can you make cardboard models of your ideas that are to scale?

Visit your local park. Create a range of designs that would solve these questions:

How can products be used to preserve wildlife in your local park?
How can products be used to help people stay safe at the park?

Consider: where might your product be? What would the product do? How would it solve the problem?

	Read		Student Led
	Watch		Creative/Research
	Listen		Visit